

Creates Azure users and

- In case we want to create guest accounts for people that will work with us.

User accounts in Microsoft Entra ID

- All user accounts are granted with a set of default permissions.
- consists of user type, their role assignments and their ownership of individual objects.
- Each type of account has a level of access specific to the scope of work expected to be done under each type of user account.
- Admin > member > guests.

Administration Rules

- Elevated access to control who's allowed to do what.
- create or edit users, assign administrative roles to others, reset user passwords, manage user licenses and more.
- If your user has the User Administrator or Global Administrator role, you can create a new user in Microsoft Entra ID by using the Azure Portal, Azure CLI, PowerShell etc....
- PowerShell New-User Cmdlet in Azure CLI az ad user create.

Member users

- For members of the organization

Guest users

- Collaborators of our organization.

Remember that we can bulk create users using the PowerShell.

Delete user accounts

- Remove - users in powershell
- az ad user delete in azure cli

In practice: add, remove users in Microsoft Entra ID

- 1- go Azure Portal.
- 2- create Resource
- 3- click create under Microsoft Entra ID under the identity category
- 4- create a tenant (organization)
- 5- click next and write org name, initial domain name and location
- 6- review + create.
- 7- click create.

Add users

- 1- Go to the org you created
- 2- Go to all users
- 3- click add users
- 4- enter the principal name (the domain name of a user)
- 5- enter display name Chris Green.
- 6- click review + create.

Delete a user

- 1- select user from all users
- 2- click delete
- 3- select ok.

Recover user (you have 30 days)

- 1- search for deleted users
- 2- select user
- 3- restore it.

Manage Resources using Microsoft Entra groups.

Use Microsoft Entra roles for manage resources like users, groups, billing, licensing, app register, etc...

- Or RBAC for resources.

Access rights through single user
or group assignment
- You can assign access rights thro
right:

- Direct assignment
- Group assignment
- Rule-based assignment

collaborate by using guest accounts and Microsoft Extra B2B
- For creating collaborations with other businesses.